

Parish Carnival Planned

The annual St. Philomena Parish Carnival will be held Saturday and Sunday at 21900 S. Main St in the City of Carson. A Mexican fiesta will be this year's theme with many booths and attractions decorated accordingly.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. John McCarthy, president of the Women's Council, and Pat Butler, president of the Men's Council, working with Father Frederick Callahan, Pastor of St. Philomena Church. The hours of the carnival will be from noon until 9 p.m. on Saturday and from 1 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Sunday.

The women of the parish have been working for months making beautiful and useful decorations and accessories which will be gifts at the carnival. Again this year there will be a Parcel Post booth with many gifts mailed in from friends and relatives from all over the country.

There will also be a taco booth, snow cone booth, fish pond, soft drink booth, balloon dart game, country store, chest of linens and bake sale with all the women of the parish contributing delicious home baked goodies. Seniors and seniors will be there with balloons and children of all ages will have many rides to choose from.

A fried chicken dinner will be held on Sunday from 1 until 7 p.m. The menu will consist of fried chicken, potato salad, home baked beans, tossed green salad, hot rolls, and ice cream. The climax of the fiesta will be the awarding of the grand prize, a 1969 Chevelle Sedan and a second prize, a portable color TV. Everyone in the area is invited to attend the carnival and dinner. No reservations are necessary.

Choraleers To Present Song Fest

Ted Roberts, minister of music and education at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, Lomita, announces that the Youth Choir from the Paramount Baptist Church, Amarello, Tex., will present a concert Friday evening.

There will be no charge and the public is cordially invited to hear the 37-voice choir, called the Choraleers, made up of high school and college-age young people.

Under the direction of Gene H. Kitterman, the group is on a 12-day tour of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, and California. The choir will be accompanied by pianist Miss Lynn Pickard and guitarist-composer George Gagliardi from Wayland Baptist College. An ensemble will also perform, made up of seven girls called the Seven-Teens.

RETURNED . . . The Rev. Lloyd H. Newlin, pastor of the Torrance First Baptist Church, attended the American Baptist Convention in Seattle last month and will present his report on the meeting Sunday at 6 p.m. Available at the meeting will be copies of speeches from the convention as well as reports given to delegates concerning mission work and other church interests. The regular Sunday evening service will follow the meeting at 7 p.m.

Children's Choir To Aid Worship

Children's Day will be observed Sunday at the 11 a.m. Worship Service at Hope United Methodist Church, 3405 W. Artesia Blvd.

CALL FOR CHANGE

Christian Scientists Gather in Boston

L. IVIMY GWALTER
New President

The power to bring concrete change that characterized the life of Jesus is still available to society, some 10,000 Christian Scientists were told at the denomination's Annual Meeting this week.

"That same Christ-power is inexhaustibly present today, to be manifested in healing the world's ills just as directly as when Jesus was on earth—and just as radically," said Inman H. Douglass, chairman of The Christian Science Board of Directors. Douglass read the directors' annual. "What Can We Do for Our World?" was the theme developed in a series of meetings and workshops.

The Directors' message urged Christian Scientists to turn their attention to the welfare of all mankind. The starting point, Douglass said, is "a commitment to daily devote specific study and prayer to the healing of world problems."

The chairman of the Board of Directors cited the following statement by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer of Christian Science: "The Church, more than any other institution, at present is the cement of society, and it should be the bulwark of civil and religious liberty" (Miscellaneous Writings).

"PRAYER LIVED," Douglass told the large audience, "demands change." Humanitarian activity, he said, typifies the very nature of Christianity. But if it is to be lastingly effective and cause deep changes in society, "it must never lack the support of spiritual consecration which comes through study and prayer."

ERWIN D. CANHAM, editor in chief of The Christian Science Monitor; Howard Jones, former ambassador to Indonesia; and Alan Young were a long well-known Christian Scientists who addressed meetings during the week. The new president of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., for the year 1969-1970 is L. Ivimy Gwalter, a resident of Boston.

Miss Gwalter served as a director of the church for 20 years.

She resigned from that position in 1968 to devote full time to the spiritual healing ministry of Christian Science. She has been a member of the Church since 1904 and an active Christian Science teacher and public practitioner for many years.

Buffet To Fete Graduates

A buffet dinner honoring recent graduates will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday evening in the Guild Hall of Central Evangelical United Methodist Church. The event will be sponsored by the Adult Christian Endeavor Society of the church.

Guest speaker will be Gene Kirby, Los Angeles County Field Secretary for Christian Endeavor, with music provided by the "Gabrielettes."

Eighth grade graduates to be honored are Janet Donley, Fern-Greenwood; Mark Lebeck, Adams; David Michael Long, Victor; Deanne Workman, Arnold; Peter Heyden, Carnegie.

Ninth grade graduates are Toni Webb, Torrance High; and Rodney Stonecker, Lawndale.

Graduating from high school are Laurie Hogue, Gary Meyer, Randy Barnett, Torrance; Judy Coffee, Paula Allen, Narbonne; and Darsha Hultgren, West High.

Combined Lutheran Choirs Set Concert

The combined choirs of Christ the King Lutheran Church will present a musical worship program at 10 a.m. Sunday.

The program will be directed by Fred Wilkins, director of music; Mrs. Linus Buss, director of the Primary Choir; Robert Gray, organist; and Pastor Elmer E. Christianson.

Special music for this Choir Recognition Service will include the combined choirs singing the Shepherd's Psalm, "Lonesome Valley," and "The Lord's Prayer," presented in a calypso beat with guitar accompaniment by Mrs. Douglas Seidel, Karen Fuller, Judy Anderson, Connie Christianson, Dennis Wilkins, Jennell Foster, Paulette Wegelin, Cindy Townsend, and Diane Seidel.

The Cadet Choir (4th through 8th grades) will sing "My Jesus: Is My Living Joy" by Buxtehude. The number will be accompanied by a flute trio composed of Laurel Fisher, Debra Seidel, and Laura O'Connor.

The Primary Choir (1st through 3rd grades) will sing "Wonderful Words of Life," and anthem written by Mrs. Buss' mother, Mrs. Ione Rapp of Gardena.

The Knights (high school youth) and the King's Choir (adults) will present "Holy Is the Lord" by Schubert.

Singers Of Hope To Appear

The Singers of Hope will present a benefit concert for "Operation Commitment" Sunday at Ascension Lutheran Church. The 7:30 p.m. program will feature religious folk music with guitar accompaniment.

The Singers of Hope were organized at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance and have been featured at various church programs in the area. They have also appeared on the television program "Reconciliation."

Operation Commitment will begin this summer in South Los Angeles with a vacation school and day camp program for children and youth of all races and creeds.

Ascension Lutheran Church is at 26231 Silver Spur Road, Rolling Hills.

Obituaries

Rachel Luke

Funeral services for Rachel Elizabeth Luke, 2212 Torrance Blvd., will be conducted at 3 p.m. today at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel. Burial is scheduled in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

A resident of Torrance for nine years, Mrs. Luke was born March 31, 1917, in Jacksonville, Ind., and died Tuesday.

She is survived by her husband, Eugene; a daughter, Sally Richards of Indio, Calif.; a son, Douglas Coultas of Wisconsin; two brothers, Wilson and Ralph Douglas of Illinois; and two sisters, Amy Buckingham and Lois Wolfe, both in Wisconsin.

James Larsen

Graveside services for James Eugene Larsen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larsen of 2455 W. 25th St., Lomita, will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his sister, Trina Marie; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Adams of Torrance, Virgil Larsen of San Pedro, and Emma B. Hinsley of Torrance.

The Rev. Robert Dehn will officiate at the rites.

Do you want to believe in God?

You can. Not just because of what someone says about God. But because of what you yourself can learn and prove about Divine Love.

Like the woman who was instantly freed by an assailant one night — when she turned to God in prayer. Or the entertainer whose back was healed through prayer after he was told he couldn't walk without surgery.

These individuals found that Divine Love meets even the most challenging human needs. . . that powerful spiritual laws are available for anyone to use.

You can learn more of these laws by reading this week's Bible Lesson.
